

Metro-Richmond Identity Theft Task Force
SCAM ALERT

E-MAIL ASSISTANCE SCAM

The following E-Mail is an example of an E-mail Assistance Scam.

-----Original Message-----

From: Reyna Baros

Sent: Monday, September 03, 2007 1:14 PM

Subject: DEAR BELOVED

Dear Beloved,

Please, I have a problem which I'm seriously searching for someone who will help me out. I am a widow and a devoted Christian, my name is Mrs. REYNA BAROS from Australia married to thai for 30years

Since my husband died, I have been suffering from arthritics, and lately doctors have diagnosed me with terminal cancer that left me with approximately one month and some weeks to live.

I am not afraid of death no more because my bible tells me that all soul shall die and come to the creator. It is my turn now and one day, it shall be your turn, Please, if you are sure of your heart, and you are sure that you will do what I asked you to do, kindly write me,

I am currently on wheelchair and being looked after by two nurses I paid every day.

Before my husband died, he left some money to the tone of US$4, 800, 000, 00(Four million, eight hundred thousand dollars) and he made me promised him that it should be used for humanitarian work, cancer patiances, charity homes, orphnage homes, patiance in the hospitals that don't have money to pay bills, prisoners, e.t.c because we have no children.

This money is currently in a vault with a security company.

If you will promise me that you will use this money to achieve the wish of my husband and me, then I will ask my lawyer to raise the documents needed for the security company to release the content of the vault in your name.

At this point in time, Your religion is absolutely irrelevant in this matter because we believe that honor and glory goes to one God, the creator, be you muslim, be you hindu, be you christain, one God.

If you are ready, all I need to build more trust and confidence in you is the followings.

Your full name

Your address

A copy of your photograph

Phone number.

Your age

What area of business you are into
Your religion

After proper introduction, I will instruct my lawyer to prepare an agreement you have to sign.

Reply me only through my private email address:
<E-MAIL ADDRESS REMOVED> for us to discuss so that you can go and claim this money before I live no more.

NOTE: PLEASE! PLEASE!! REPLY ME ONLY AT MY PRIVATE EMAIL ADDRESS:
<E-MAIL ADDRESS REMOVED> AS NON OF THE NURSES HELP ME CHECK IT.

May God/Allah bless you as you walk in the light and glory.
Thank you.
Yours in Vineyard
MRS. REYNA BAROS

www.richmondIDtheft.com

The Metro-Richmond Identity Theft Task Force is a cooperative effort of federal, state, county and local law enforcement agencies working together to address the growing problem of financial crimes. The task force is run under the direction of the United States Postal Inspection Service.